The County Park Commission has acquired several tracts adjoining the Branch Brook property handed over to the Commission for park purposes, and is negotiating for other parcels of land to enlarge the boundaries of the proposed park and make symmetrical. Surveyors are at work and operations on the park will be begun in the spring. The Commission has had no difficulty as yet in acquiring lands in the county at fair prices. What other chases have been made or are in contemplation will not be learned until this Commission is prepared to give out the information. It is probable that the recommendation of the first Park Commiswill be closely adhered to. This was, in outline, to establish several large reservations where natural scenery could be taken advantage of and to connect them with broad parkways, that smaller parks be laid out in the cities, and that the west bank of the bassaic be included in the park and a landing for pleasure boats be built. PREPARING FOR THE GREAT TEMPER ANCE CONVENTION OF WOMEN.

WORKING TO RID THE CITY OF "DIVES"-NOTES OF LOCAL AND PERSONAL INTEREST.

Earnest women whose chief aim in life is to fight the drink traffic will have possession of Paterson for the greater part of next week. The twenty second annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of New-Jersey will assemble on Tuesday and continue its sessions through Friday. Twenty-five departments of work will be represent ed. Some three hundred delegates are expected.

Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, State president of the Iowa unions; Miss Belia Kearns, of Mississippi, and John G. Woolley, of Chicago, are among the speakers

Besides this gathering a subject related to temperance has agitated a large part of the com-munity for some days. After an investigation, which reached the dimensions of a court trial, the License Committee of the Aldermen has voted to recommend the revocation of the license held by the proprietor of a concert-hall that has come into notoriety, and has appointed a sub-committee to investigate two other places with a view to ridding the city of "dives." It is estimated that the people of Paterson pay out $300,000 annually for fire insurance premiums, and it cost the taxpayers $140,000 last year to maintain the Fire Department.
